

I wanted to express that K-LOVE is an important asset to our community. We do not have very many Christian radio stations in our area playing contemporary music which appeals to adults, and teens alike. It is so important to have an alternative for our teenage children to listen to. It inspires me in my daily life. Thank you for listening!